

Quail Management Workshop and Field Tour

May 8th, 2018 (8:45 – 3:30)

Join us near Purdy, Virginia (Greensville, County) where we will present an overview of new findings in quail ecology and management. (Grace Church Parish Hall – 9986 Purdy Rd., Jarratt, Va. 23867)

- Summary of the latest findings from Tall Timbers Research Station's Quail Management Handbook (results of having studied over 30,000 quail)
  - Landowner forestry and wildlife cost-share program overview
    - A landowners / manager's perspective
- We'll also tour River's Edge Farm, hosted by the Jones family this award winning farm has examples of many different wildlife management techniques including long-leaf pine plantings, native grasses and wildflowers, and more (and they have quail).
- Lunch provided by Southside Virginia Quail Forever free (but donations accepted)

Registration is free BUT required and limited to the first 75 registrants (Registration deadline – April 30th).

Register by calling the Southeast District Virginia Cooperative Extension office at: 757-653-2572 and specifying the Purdy Quail Workshop

For more information e-mail Marc.puckett@dgif.virginia.gov

